

CleanEquity Monaco 2011, March 3rd & 4th - New Companies & Speakers Announced

London, UK, 25th January 2011. CleanEquity Monaco, the forum for emerging cleantech companies of all nationalities to present to specialist financial & strategic investors, policy makers, end users and international & trade media.

CleanEquity is pleased to announce 21 Ventures as a partner for 2011. Based in New York, 21 Ventures invests in clean technologies and entrepreneurs focused on solving the challenges of the 21st Century: climate change, global urbanisation, growing middle class in emerging markets, and depletion of natural resources.

Since 2004, 21Ventures has provided over 40 clean tech ventures with seed, bridge, and growth equity capital.

We are pleased to announce the following persons as speakers.

George Frampton, senior counsel at Covington & Burling. He served as Chairman of the White House Council on Environmental Quality (CEQ) from 1998 to 2001 and most recently as Co-Chairman of the Obama transition team for CEQ.

James Cameron, Vice Chairman of Climate Change Capital. He is an expert in developing policy responses to climate change. Prior to CCC he founded and ran the Climate Change Practice at Baker & McKenzie and was involved in negotiating the UNFCCC and Kyoto Protocol.

Paul Clements-Hunt, Head of the United Nations Environment Programme Finance Initiative.

David Anthony, Managing Partner of 21 Ventures, sits on the board of portfolio companies and teaches at the New York Academy of Sciences.
